Founded in 1923, the company is specialised in luxury binding. It processes fine paper and leather and gilds with real gold. It has a contract of exclusivity for binding with publishers Éditions de la Pléiade.

It is known for its rare know-how in binding and gilding. It carries out a host of complex processes dictated by strict quality controls.

The company has special equipment developed for this specific use.

Its prestigious clientele is made exclusively of publishing houses and printing firms.
