Indiscrete Lingerie (CDB & Cie) was founded at the end of 2010 by 3 ex-employees who had lost their jobs at Aubade. It creates, produces and distributes upmarket women's lingerie.

The products are made on order at the manufacturing site in Chauvigny, in the Vienne department, a region where this kind of production has been at work for over 50 years.

The company has a mastery of a complex expertise that has become extremely rare in France.

Brassieres, panties and other kinds of lingerie are available in several forms, with sizes ranging from 85 to 120, from A to F, and from 36 to 58, depending on the product, in all collections and colours. The products are presented in homes (privately or in small groups).

The cooling-off period makes it possible to undertake production for products sold, so that, if necessary, the product can be personalized/adapted (from an exhaustive catalogue) for women with morphological constraints (breast feeding, mammary differences, mastectomy).
