Founded in 1993, Grandis specialises in the design and manufacture of luxury ready-to-wear fashion. Most of the production from the workshop requires complex know-how and excellence. Flat moulding, mannequin moulding, prototyping, creation of toiles, quilting in accordance with patterns, manual cutting or band sawing, all steps of assembling and mounting checks / patterns on tweed and all other materials, all hand assembly steps, special hand stitches, hand finishing, stocking techniques and garment prepping. All these steps are complex and performed with the highest level of technique and diligence.

Its clientele is made up of prestigious fashion houses mainly located in France.
